Independent singer-songwriter, Abbie Thomas, mixes pop melodies with soulful vocals and hints of R&B, Jazz, and a vibe from the songwriters of the 70's. Touring regionally from Michigan to Oklahoma to Nashville, TN, she has most recently opened for Laine Hardy, Girl Named Tom, and Cathy Richardson of Jefferson Starship.

She is a two-time singer-songwriting finalist at Michigan's Acorn Theater (2019 & 2022) where she earned a fan in judge and Grammy winner, Jim Peterik. She released her independent, self funded debut album, "Who I Am", in June of 2021, in connection with a series of music videos. The standout video, "fireflies" earned her a Hollywood Music in Media Independent nomination in 2021, as well as, a cluster of film festival selections and awards. She is currently nominated for 4 Josie Music Awards, "the Grammy's for independent artists", for Entertainer of the Year, Song of the Year for "Dirty Little Things", Artist of the Year, and earned a Songwriter Achievement award for an unreleased track, "Lucky Penny". The awards show takes place at Nashville's Grand Ole Opry in October of 2023.

Her first self-produced project, the "Dirty Little Things" EP, was released May 13, 2022, in connection with a 130+ tour date schedule in 2022. While actively touring in Indiana & Michigan in 2023, she is also writing arrangements for the Elkhart, IN Symphony Orchestra, and for the South Bend Symphony Quartet. New music is planned to release in the second half of 2023.
